Distant Soundz

Distant Soundz first broke into the main stream in 2002 with their massive club anthem 'Time after Time'. With a massive promotional tour, music video heavily support by the likes of MTV, Kiss & Smash Hits it smashed into the UK Top 20 in one of the biggest selling weeks on record with the infamous Will Young also releasing his first single .

Distant Soundz performed the hit live on various TV appearances including Channel 4, BBC Wales, Pop Factory and the Legendary BBC 1 Top Of The Pops. Also credited as one of the only UK Garage records to be played on BBC R2, with Steve Wright championing the single on his afternoon show.

Now widely regarded as a 'Club Classic' its still as big as ever in clubs across the UK & Europe. Following this was the 'DJ Sasha' supported 'Distant Soundz – Runaway' that became a firm Party Capital 95.8 favourite. Performing the single Live at the massive 'Party in the Parks' and 'Feel the Noise' events – Distant Soundz wowed crowds of up to 120,000 people with there infectious hits!

Released on Incentive / Ministry of Sound 'Runway' has featured on countless Compilation CD's, DVD's, TV Programmes and even a Microsoft Xbox commercial.

Then came the next club smash from 'Distant Soundz' titled 'Just Wanna Luv U'. This time featuring vocalist Damae from the Million selling dance act 'Fragma'. Again receiving great support across the Capital Network, it proved another club smash both in the UK and overseas.

Released on the Inferno Label 'Just Wanna Luv U' has been featured on various leading compilation CD's and used on various TV inc. CBBC.

Distant Soundz returned with 'Stay (With The Sun Comin Up)' another club smash heavily supported by the likes of world famous DJ Judge Jules!! Snapped up by leading UK dance label Gusto, the label behind recent hits by the likes of David Guetta it was featured on various leading compilation CD's.

Currently highly in demand for their remix credits, the name Distant Soundz can be found on many releases including names such as Craig David, Jakatta, Sweet F.A, Shola Ama, Velvet Code, Rozalla and the current 'ABC - Look of Love' sampled monster 'The LA Project – All or Nothing'.

2009 is looking very bright indeed for the Distant Soundz boys!
